At such a young age you have accumulated numerous property-related offences. Your case is somewhat unique in that the crimes were not committed to feed an intoxicant problem but mainly as a means to survive when you choose to be around criminally oriented persons rather than with your pro-social family. Nonetheless, there are no indications that you have acted aggressively or violently during your offences. Furthermore, there are no suggestions you displayed outward anger or aggression while growing up, at home, in the school system or in the community.

b) STRESSORS/FACTORS IN THE RELEASE ENVIRONMENT THAT COULD LEAD TO THE COMMISSION OF AN OFFENCE INVOLVING VIOLENCE, AND EFFORTS TO ADDRESS THESE STRESSORS/FACTORS

Issues around sexual identity in your teens is believed to have ill-effects on your self-esteem. REASONS FOR DECISION(S)

There are no indications on file that you have committed a violent related criminal act. Information on your home and school behaviour is absent of any references to aggressive actions or a propensity to act in a violent manner. Therefore, the Board is satisfied that there are no reasonable grounds to believe that, if released, you are likely to commit an offence involving violence before the expiration of your sentence. Therefore it directs your day and full parole.

BOARD MEMBERS' IDENTIFICATION AND ASSESSMENT OF FACTORS INDICATING A POTENTIAL FOR NON-VIOLENT REOFFENDING

The Board believes that you must deal with a number of issues if you are to turn your behaviours around. Emotional issues surrounding your sexuality must be addressed and you must make an undertaking to get educational upgrading and employment skills.
